BRIEF IN THE MILITARY COMMISSION
TRIAL OF:
NAKAJIMA, NOBORU, CAPT. IJA HANGING
ISONO, MEGURU, CAPT. IJA ACQUITTED TRIED IN JOINDER, BY ORDER OF THE COMMANDER MARIANAS AREA, ON 3 JUNE 1946.

The record of proceedings in the military commission case of the above named accused, tried in joinder, shows that Captain Noboru Nakajima was charged with and convicted of murder; Captain Meguru Isono was found not guilty and acquitted thereof. The accused Captain Nakajima was sentenced to be executed by hanging. The convening authority approved the proceedings, findings and sentence. The Commander in Chief, United States Pacific Fleet and Pacific Ocean Areas, and the Military Governor of the Pacific Ocean Areas approved the proceedings, findings and sentence, and the action of the convening authority thereon, and referred the record to the Secretary of the Navy in conformity with section D-14, Naval Courts and Boards.

Defendants were IJA captains attached to the 308th Battalion Headquarters on Chichi Jima about 23 February, 1945, when the deceased American flyer, name unknown, was forced down and captured. He was brought to battalion headquarters, where a drinking party of battalion officers was in progress. Upon hearing of the arrival of the prisoner, Nakajima and Isono left the party and approached the prisoner. Isono put one arm around the prisoner, and in an alleged attempt to "brace him up," slapped him in the face. Apparently this was the limit of Isono's participation in the affair. Nakajima began questioning the prisoner, and upon receiving unsatisfactory responses began screaming at him and beating him over the head and face with a heavy stick which he was carrying. The prisoner sank to the ground, and was beaten again when he attempted to rise. Death ensued shortly thereafter.

contention. From both the extra-judicial (Ex.2) and judicial (R.p.47) confessions of the accused plus the corroboratory testimony to the effect that the accused was in the immediate presence of the prisoner at the 308th Battalion Headquarters on or about 23 February 1945, there can be no doubt that the accused slapped the prisoner. How there could be any justification for this slapping in the circumstances as shown by the evidence is fantastic.

Whether the slapping of the prisoner by Isono had anything to do with his death is another question. By the facts established I consider there is reasonable doubt as to whether Isono was guilty of murder. However, assault and battery is a lesser included offense of murder. The commission should have complied with the provisions of section 430 Naval Courts and Boards and found Isono guilty of the lesser included offense. (Para. 148, Manual Courts Martial, U. S. Army, 1928, corrected to 20 April 1943.)

Defendant, Captain Meguru Isono, IJA, has been released from arrest as an accused and orders have been issued by Commander Marianas for his repatriation to Japan when transportation is available.

Subject to the above remarks, the proceedings in the foregoing case of Captain Noboru Nakajima, IJA, and Captain Meguru Isono, IJA, are approved. The findings on the charge and specification thereunder and the sentence with reference to Nakajima, Noboru, Captain, IJA, are approved.

Captain Nakajima will be retained in confinement at the Island Command Stockade, Guam, pending instructions from higher authority.

Serial: 8397

The military commission, composed of Army, Navy, and Marine Corps officers, in the foregoing case, was convened 5 April 1946 by the Commander Marianas Area pursuant to his inherent authority as a Military Commander and the specific authorization of the Commander in Chief United States Pacific Fleet (CinCPac conf. serial 0558 of March 8, 1946) and Pacific Ocean Areas, and Military Governor of the Pacific Ocean Areas. The order for trial (charge and specification) was issued 28 May 1946, and served on the accused 29 May 1946. The trial was held under authority of Naval Courts and Boards, except that the commission was authorized by the precept to relax the rules of Naval Courts to meet the necessities of the trial and to use the rules of evidence and procedure promulgated by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers in his Regulations Governing the Trials of Accused War Criminals, dated 5 December 1945, as necessary to obtain justice.

The evidence clearly shows that the defendant, Captain Noboru Nakajima, IJA, illegally beat to death, with a stick, an American prisoner of war about February 23, 1945, on Chichi Jima.

The convening authority does not concur in the finding of the commission as to the acquittal of the accused Captain Meguru Isono, IJA. Without presuming to usurp the prerogatives of the commission in weighing the evidence the convening authority desires to point out the insufficiency of the evidence to support such a finding. The evidence shows that Isono was present on or about 23 February 1945 at the Japanese Army 308th Battalion Headquarters, Chichi Jima, when an American prisoner of war was brought to that headquarters. When it was reported that the prisoner was present Isono went out to see him. On 13 March 1946 as a witness before a Board of Investigation he described the events that followed in his own words as follows:

"Captain Sato and I went out to see the flyer (prisoner) and I slapped him once. Captain Sato slapped the prisoner twice and knocked him down, whereupon I picked him up. At that time Sgt. Wada came upon the scene, and struck the flyer one blow. We had all been drinking. (Ex.2(2) and (3)).

"I slapped him once with the palm of my hand. I did not knock him down. (Ex.2(3)).

"I was not ordered to do it but I was drunk at the time." (Ex.2(3)).

When on the stand as a witness in his own defense he reiterated the fact that he slapped the prisoner but in the nature of a confession and avoidance claimed in effect that the slap given the prisoner was intended for the prisoner's benefit. The commission by its finding of "not guilty" has accepted the accused's contention that he slapped the prisoner with justifiable cause. The positive evidence as indicated above does not support this

Petition

January 29th, 1947.

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander, Allied Powers

We, the undersigned, are former servicemen who served under
Hoboru Nakajima

Ex-Captain, 305th Independent Batt., 109th Division and who, we understand, is at present detained in Guam as a war criminal. As we have a close personal knowledge of ex-captain Nakajima who was our Company Commander we feel deeply for him in his misfortune, and more so as we are cognizant of the situation at that time.

In this reason, we respectfully take this opportunity of presenting a petition for Your Excellency's humane intercession in considering leniency in the discharge of justice against our former commanding officers on the following points.

1. As the commanding officer, Nakajima held the firm and warm trust of the entire company. Not only was he noted for warmth and cheerfulness, he was firm in feeling the responsibility of his position and work. We never knew him to be domineering or harsh and a sort of fraternal bond existed between him and the rank and file of the company.
2. During the later part of the war when the situation was worsening rapidly, Ex-Major Matoba, Commanding Officer of 308th Independent Battalion and therefore Nakajima's direct superior became quite reckless of what would happen and mustering his officers held drinking bouts nearly every day, which later cast an evil influence on the whole rank and file.

As this situation continued Matoba issued an order demanding the death of all enemy personnel who were caught and to bring the bodies to him. We are ready to testify to existence of such orders.

3. In view of Nakajima's character we can only believe that the crime with which he is charged was committed when he was not in his right mind or under the influence of alcohol. Certainly he could not have committed any crime of his own violation, and we his former men are ready to testify to his personal character at any time.

We conclude this petition with a fervent prayer to Your Excellency to exercise that magnanimity for which we the Japanese people are already overwhelmingly indebted and to bring hope and life to Nakajima's wife and helpless children.

who has been charged with war crimes and is at present, we understand, detained

We as representatives of the religion bodies to which the above mentioned belonged, respectfully take this opportunity of praying for leniency in dealing with the accused whom we have known since childhood and for whose spiritual training we have some responsibility. We are intimately acquainted with the personal character of Nakajima who is a member of our parish.

The news of his detention has come as quite a shock because we have never known Nakajima to the other than a warm humane man with a deep sense of responsibility, always sympathetic with others more unfortunate than himself and always ready to help others in their problems.

We are firmly convinced therefore that if such a person has committed a crime, that action must have taken place when he was not in his right mind such as under the influence of alcohol. Again war and especially actual battle, with its horror of blood and death and screaming nerves crushed the ordinary humane and civilized senses, fringing out the worst of the field or jungle. At such times no man is in his right mind. But when the sound of battle dies away, the civilized man emerges again, his nature a little coarser perhaps, but still uncharged enough to feel with horror what he has done, and convinced that what he has done was done while in a dream. Certainly no man would even dream of doing such things in ordinary normal times. In this respect Nakajima is no different from other ordinary men.

Petition

I, the undersigned, am the wife of Noboru Nakajima, ex-captain, Japanese Army, attached to the former 308th Independent Battalion 109th Division.

The news of the extention of Nakajima as a war criminal in Guam has come as a great shock to me and I am stricken with grief and apprehension as to his fate. I can hardly believe such terrible tidings in the light of my knowledge of his character. I have always found Nakajima to be honest, cheerful and completely unselfish. In his work, I have always been impressed by his earnest sense of responsibility. I am convinced that any crime with which he may be charged, could not have been committed by him on his own volition. Nothing has ever occurred in my long relationship with him to shake my belief in my husband's character.

I make this urgent appeal for leniency because I believe in Your Excellency's humanity and generosity towards us, Your former enemies who now lie defeated, broken and repentant.

I appeal to Your Excellency's humanity in the name of my helpless children who would otherwise be bereft of father and provider. I appeal to Your Excellency's generosity in the name of a woman and a wife who believes in the goodness of her husband. I appeal to Your Excellency's fair sense of Justice in the name of all innocent--through--ignorance people of the world who have been duped by their leaders and forced into barbarity of war with all its horrors and cruelties. I appeal to Your Excellency's knowledge of the battlefield to take into consideration the fact that ordinary men in the battlefield, through bloodlust, become savage beasts.

In conclusion I beg of Your Excellency to aid a helpless mother and her children in this matter which is life and death to them and for which their gratitude will know no bounds.

Yours Obediently,

Kikuno Nakajima

We, the undersigned, representing the Women's Association of Omaki-mura, Niigata-ken, submit this petition pleading for your Excellency's intercession in the case of.

Noboru Nakajima

Ex-Captain 308th Independent Battalion,

109th Division, Japanese Army.

who is being detained in Guam as a war criminal.

The Women's Association here is well acquainted with Noboru Nakajima and in view of the pitiful position into which his wife and children have been placed due to his detention, our sympathy knows no bounds and we have decided to do whatever we can to save them in any way possible.

Unfortunately we women are not in a position to do anything positive for the accused beyond making a plea to Your Excellency for compassion and begging for leniency on his behalf.

We have always known Noboru Nakajima to be a humane, cheerful person with a deep sense of responsibility and not the kind of person who would commit any criminal act. We cannot help but feel, knowing his character as we do, that under the disastrous consequences of a futile war, Nakajima has become a victim of circumstances. We are firmly convinced that Nakajima was not in his right mind and under the influence of alcohol.

We also strongly feel that due consideration should be accorded to the state of mind of men in battle, whose nerves are strained to breaking point and each lurks everywhere. When the finer instincts of man are stifled and the baser brute instincts gain the upper hand.

Finally we appeal to Your Excellency's compassion in the name of womenkind to consider the pitiful state of Nakajima's wife and children who lose their dearest pos-

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander Allied Powers

We, the 392 persons comprising the entire farmers of Onaki Village in Minami-Utsunomiya-gun of Niigata Prefecture, respectfully submit this petition for Your Excellency's magnanimous consideration.

The matter concerns a man who was born and brought up among us here and to whose war hearted and gentle character we are in the best position to testify.

The man refers to is:

Hoboru Nakajima

former captain in the Japanese Army attached to the former 308th Independent Battalion of the 109th Division.

We have learned much to our sorrow that Nakajima is being detained at Guam as a war criminal and we, his fellow villagers, have been unable to remain silent in our sympathy and sorrow over his fate. Consequently we have unanimously decided to boldly tender a petition to Your Excellency attesting to Nakajima's good character with the anxious hope that Your Excellency will lend us His Excellency's usual clear-cut and humane consideration to our appeal, the four main points of which we submit as follows:

1. Nakajima is an agricultural expert and for many years guided the farmers in this district. At the present time when the need for increased food production is vital we greatly miss his guidance and advice.
2. Through our long association with him, we unanimously attest to Nakajima's character which was peaceful, sympathetic and earnest. Furthermore he was a staunch upholder of right and truth.
3. According to the testimony of soldiers of Nakajima Unit, or the 308th Battalion, Ex-Major Matsuda, Commanding Officer of the Battalion issued an order demanding the death of all enemy personnel who were caught.
4. We are convinced that any crime he may be charged with, has been brought about by action taken through military orders from his superiors. We are sure in the light of our knowledge of his character that any criminal action which may have been taken by him was against his true will.

In conclusion we humbly beg of your Excellency's mercy to see a way to freeing Nakajima from his plight.

In the trembling hope that this appeal will merit your Excellency's humane and just consideration.

I appeal to Your Excellency's humanity in the name of my helpless children who would otherwise be bereft of father and provider. I appeal to Your Excellency's generosity in the name of a woman and a wife who believes in the goodness of her husband. I appeal to Your Excellency's fair sense of Justice in the name of all innocent--through--ignorance people of the world who have been duped by their leaders and forced into barbarity of war with all its horrors and cruelties. I appeal to Your Excellency's knowledge of the battlefield to take into consideration the fact that ordinary men in the battlefield, through bloodlust, become savage beasts.

In conclusion I beg of Your Excellency to aid a helpless mother and her children in this matter which is life and death to them and for which their gratitude will know no bounds.

Yours Obediently,

Kikuno Nakajima

Petition

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander Allied Powers

We, the undersigned, representing the Women's Association of Omaki-mura, Niigata-ken, submit this petition pleading for your Excellency's intercession in the case of.

Noboru Nakajima

Ex-Captain 308th Independent Battalion,

109th Division, Japanese Army.

who is being detained in Guam as a war criminal.

The Women's Association here is well acquainted with Noboru Nakajima and in view of the pitiful position into which his wife and children have been placed due to his detention, our sympathy knows no bounds and we have decided to do whatever we can to save them in any way possible.

Unfortunately we women are not in a position to do anything positive for the accused beyond making a plea to Your Excellency for compassion and begging for leniency on his behalf.

We have always known Noboru Nakajima to be a humane, cheerful person with a deep sense of responsibility and not the kind of person who would commit any criminal act. We cannot help but feel, knowing his character as we do, that under the disastrous consequences of a futile war, Nakajima has become a victim of circumstances. We are firmly convinced that Nakajima was not in his right mind and under the influence of alcohol.

We also strongly feel that due consideration should be accorded to the state of mind of men in battle, whose nerves are strained to breaking point and each lurks everywhere. Then the finer instincts of man are stifled and the baser brute instincts gain the upper hand.

Finally we appeal to Your Excellency's compassion in the name of womenkind to consider the pitiful state of Nakajima's wife and children who lose their dearest possession. Save them, we beg of you, from the grief and hardship which otherwise will be their lot and their gratitude and ours will be Your Excellency's forever.

Kata Nakajima and 176 others,

Petition

January 29th, 1947

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander Allied Powers

We, the 392 persons comprising the entire farmers of Omaki Village in Minami-Uonuma-gun of Niigata Prefecture, respectfully submit this petition for Your Excellency's magnanimous consideration.

The matter concerns a man who was born and brought up among us here and to whose war hearted and gentle character we are in the best position to testify.

The man referred to is:

Noboru Nakajima

former captain in the Japanese Army attached to the former 308th Independent Battalion of the 109th Division.

We have learned much to our sorrow that Nakajima is being detained at Guam as a war criminal and we, his fellow villagers, have been unable to remain silent in our sympathy and sorrow over his fate. Consequently we have unanimously decided to boldly tender a petition to Your Excellency attesting to Nakajima's good character with the anxious hope that Your Excellency will lend us His Excellency's usual clear-cut and humane consideration to our appeal, the four main points of which we submit as follows:

1. Nakajima is an agricultural expert and for many years guided the farmers in this district. At the present time when the need for increased food production is vital we greatly miss his guidance and advice.
2. Through our long association with him, we unanimously attest to Nakajima's character which was peaceful, sympathetic and earnest. Furthermore he was a staunch upholder of right and truth.
3. According to the testimony of soldiers of Nakajima Unit, or the 308th Battalion, Ex-Major Matoba, Commanding Officer of the Battalion issued an order demanding the death of all enemy personnel who were caught.

action taken thro gh military orders from his superiors. We are sure in the light of our knowledge of his character that any criminal action which may have been taken by him was against his true will.

In conclusion we humbly beg of your Excellency's mercy to see a way to freeing Nakajima from his plight.

In the trembling hope that this appeal will merit your Excellency's humane and just consideration.

Petition

January 29th, 1947.

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander, Allied Powers

We, the undersigned, are former servicemen who served under

Noboru Nakajima

Ex-Captain, 305th Independent Batt., 109th Division

and who, we understand, is at present detained in Guam as a war criminal. As we have a close personal knowledge of ex-captain Nakajima who was our Company Commander we feel deeply for him in his misfortune, and more so as we are cognizant of the situation at that time.

In this reason, we respectfully take this opportunity of presenting a petition for Your Excellency's humane intercession in considering leniency in the discharge of justice against our former commanding officers on the following points.

1. As the commanding officer, Nakajima held the firm and warm trust of the entire company. Not only was he noted for warmth and cheerfulness, he was firm in feeling the responsibility of his position and work. We never knew him to be domineering or harsh and a sort of fraternal bond existed between him and the rank and file of the company.
2. During the latter part of the war when the situation was worsening rapidly, Ex-Major Matoba, Commanding Officer of 308th Independent Battalion and therefore, Nakajima's direct superior became quite reckless of what would happen and mustering his officers held drinking bouts nearly every day, which later cast an evil influence on the whole rank and file.

As this situation continued Matoba issued an order demanding the death of all enemy personnel who were caught and to bring the bodies to him. We are ready to testify to existence of such orders.

3. In view of Nakajima's character we can only believe that the crime with which he is charged was committed when he was not in his right mind or under the influence of alcohol. Certainly he could not have committed any crime of his own volition, and we, his former men, are ready to testify to his personal character at any time.

We conclude this petition with a fervent prayer to Your Excellency to exercise that magnanimity for which we the Japanese people are already overwhelmingly indebted and to bring hope and life to Nakajima's wife and helpless children.

Petition

January 29th, 1947.

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander, Allied Powers

We respectfully submit a petition in the case of :-

Noboru Nakajima, Ex-Captain, 308th I.B. of the 109th Division, Japanese Army.

who has been charged with war crimes and is at present, we understand, detained in Guam.

We as representatives of the religion bodies to which the above mentioned belonged, respectfully take this opportunity of praying for leniency in dealing with the accused whom we have known since childhood and for whose spiritual training we have some responsibility. We are intimately acquainted with the personal character of Nakajima who is a member of our parish.

The news of his detention has come as quite a shock because we have never known Nakajima to the other than a warm humane man with a deep sense of responsibility, always sympathetic with others more unfortunate than himself and always ready to help others in their problems,

We are firmly convinced, therefore, that if such a person has committed a crime, that action must have taken place when he was not in his right mind such as under the influence of alcohol. Again war and especially actual battle, with its horror of blood and death and screaming nerves crushes the ordinary humane and civilized senses, fringing out the worst of the field or jungle. At such times no man is in his right mind. But when the sound of battle dies away, the civilized man emerges again, his nature a little coarser perhaps, but still uncharged enough to feel with horror what he has done, and convinced that what he has done was done while in a dream. Certainly no man would even dream of doing such things in ordinary normal times. In this respect Nakajima is no different from other ordinary men.

We earnestly beg of Your Excellency to take our above plea into consideration and to grant us the great favour of interceding for leniency on behalf of not only the accused but of his poor wife and helpless children who add their prayers to ours in this our urgent petition.

Petition

I, the undersigned, am the wife of Noboru Nakajima, ex-captain, Japanese Army, attached to the former 308th Independent Battalion 109th Division.

The news of the detention of Nakajima as a war criminal in Guam has come as a great shock to me and I am stricken with grief and apprehension as to his fate. I can hardly believe such terrible tidings in the light of my knowledge of his character. I have always found Nakajima to be honest, cheerful and completely unselfish. In his work, I have always been impressed by his earnest sense of responsibility. I am convinced that any crime with which he may be charged, could not have been committed by him on his own volition. Nothing has ever occurred in my long relationship with him to shake my belief in my husband's character.

I make this urgent appeal for leniency because I believe in Your Excellency's humanity and generosity towards us, Your former enemies who now lie defeated, broken and repentant.

I appeal to Your Excellency's humanity in the name of my helpless children who would otherwise be bereft of father and provider. I appeal to Your Excellency's generosity in the name of a woman and a wife who believes in the goodness of her husband. I appeal to Your Excellency's fair sense of Justice in the name of all innocent--though --ignorance people of the world who have been misled by their leaders and forced into barbarity of war with all its horrors and cruelties. I appeal to Your Excellency's knowledge of the battlefield to take into consideration the fact that ordinary men in the battlefield, through bloodlust, become savage beasts.

In conclusion I beg of Your Excellency to aid a helpless mother and her children in this matter which is life and death to them and for which their gratitude will know no bounds.

Yours Obediently,

Kikuno Nakajima

Petition

To His Excellency
General Douglas MacArthur
Supreme Commander Allied Powers

We, the undersigned, representing the Women's Association of Omaki-mura, Niigata-ken, submit this petition pleading for Your Excellency's intercession in the case of

Noboru Nakajima
Ex-Captain 308th Independent Battalion,
109th Division, Japanese Army.

who is being detained in Guam as a war criminal.

The Women's Association here is well acquainted with Noboru Nakajima and in view of the pitiful position into which his wife and children have been placed due to his detention, our sympathy knows no bounds and we have decided to do whatever we can to save them in any way possible.

Unfortunately we women are not in a position to do anything positive for the accused beyond making a plea to Your Excellency for compassion and begging for leniency on his behalf.

We have always known Noboru Nakajima to be a humane, cheerful person with a deep sense of responsibility and not the kind of person who would commit any criminal act. We cannot help but feel, knowing his character as we do, that under the disastrous consequences of a futile war, Nakajima has become a victim of circumstances. We are firmly convinced that Nakajima was not in his right mind and under the influence of alcohol.

We also strongly feel that due consideration should be accorded to the state of mind of men in battle, whose nerves are strained to breaking point and death lurks everywhere. Then the finer instincts of man are stifled and the baser brute instincts gain the upper hand.

Finally we appeal to Your Excellency's compassion in the name of womenkind to consider the pitiful state of Nakajima's wife and children who lose their dearest possession. Save them, we beg of you, from the grief and hardship which otherwise will be their lot and their gratitude and ours will be Your Excellency's forever.

Kata Nakajima.
