Bilhardt Home

Private First Class George R. Bilhardt, Preble county's only known soldier on Corregidor when it fell to the Japs in March, 1942, is home. He is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bilhardt, who live near Lebanon, Ohio. His father used to operate a garage and auto sales service agency in Fair Haven. Bilhardt reportedly mined coal for 18 months in Japan where he was transferred as a prisoner-of-war after the Philippine islands were surrendered to the Japanese.
