TO YOU ALL.

Hallo to all Ex-Derelicts !

Before we close our POW Chapter altogether, we'd just like to send you a message of greeting for 1946.

We hope that by now everyone is well 'dug in' on the new life, and find it comes up to the standard of all the wild dreams of the past three and a half years. On our part, we found the settling down far easier than expected. Once we managed to grasp the fact that the whole business really was true, we seemed to drop into line as though we'd never been away. Probably you found much the same thing. The Japanese interlude, in its turn, has become a dream. On the other hand, it remains only too real for the families of those who did not return. We know what they must be suffering, and we can only offer them our sincere sympathies. We shall not forget those whom we left behind.

We all split up so quickly in Tokio, that there was no chance to say Goodbye. We'd like to say it now. Goodbye, and Good Luck to you all. Maybe sometime we shall unite again under very much happier circumstances. We can then chew upon all the arguments and battles of the last three and a half years to our hearts' content ! It is hard to imagine that any of us can altogether forget that amazing life. All the fights, the grievances, the mistakes, and (never this !) the robberies,—yet, with it all, we seem to have done better than some. It was an inevitable part of the life, and it all seems so stupid and trivial now—however important it appeared at the time.

In closing, we'd like to say that if any of you want any help at any time, and you think we may be able to supply it—just drop us a line and we'll do our best.

Cheerio, and all the very best to all of you for 1946, and many, many, years to come.

December, 1945.

THE STARS AND JACK.

When we came to Aomi Hall
So far from our dear Singapore
And saw that blasted wooden wall
Our hearts were cut right to the core
Then came the Yanks from their Corrigador
And Sing-corr derelicts became our all.

But Now :—

A brighter day
Is on its way
The skies are blue instead of grey
It won't be long
You can't go wrong
The boys are cheering peace along.

“ Optime qui ultime ridet ” begin
Open out and let them hear the din
Look out—and shout—HOORAY !
And drink to Freedom's longed-for day.
